Grant presentation permissions

In a Teams meeting, you can assign roles to specific participants to set permissions.

Make them a presenter

1. During a meeting, select Show participants to see a list of everyone in the meeting.

2. Hover over someone whose role needs to be changed and click the ellipsis to see More options.

3. Now make them a presenter so they can present and share content. Click Make presenter.